IN MEMORIAM

We have all been deeply saddened by the loss of Mr. Carl Rice. We would like to express our sincere appreciation for his many contributions to the academic and social life of our school.

We cannot say, we must not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cherry smile,
and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since
he lingers there;
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here,
Think of him still
as the same, and say
He is not dead, he is just away.

The 1962 Hesperian Staff has worked diligently to compose a new and interesting yearbook. We have attempted to provide a record of this years' events with the hope that this yearbook will be a pleasant reminder of the 1961-1962 school year. Our publisher this year is the R. Wallace Pischel Company of Pasco, Washington.

STUDENT COUNCIL

JIM WESTWOOD, Student Body President

The student council has been very busy this year. They began the year with a whirl of activity hosting 300 members of the Portland area student councils at the Region III Student Council Conference. They have been very active the entire year. They managed: to put a juke box and loud speaker system in the Oregon City High School gym, pass a constitutional amendment allowing the student council to become the largest and have the most accurate representation in the history of OCHS, plan and carry out the first student body meeting in several years, and get orange juice and chocolate milk put into the apple machine.

"HELLO" FROM ROSE

Our Foreign Exchange Student
ROSE PALATCHI

The trip was long, from Spain to Oregon City, and long was the wait to know this new world for me. This wonderful place where I was going to spend one year.

Now I know most of my friends and teachers, and their friendliness will help me to have the most wonderful year of my life.

Spain is also a beautiful country with very nice people. I live in Barcelona, a lively city with two million inhabitants; a favorite city of all the foreigners because of the excellent climate, luxurious shops and avenues; in short: a real metropolis in which I would be glad to see you and correspond in all the kindness that you, great American people, have had with me.

This trip to the States has been my life dream; I am very grateful to you for all your participation that has made me able to come here.

Good bye is too strong. Let's say: HASTA LA VISTA. (I'll see you again.)

Mr. Alberto Palatchi, Mrs. Rose Palatchi, Stefano Palatchi, Miss Florita Palatchi, Alberto Palatchi, Jr.

BULL IN A CHINA SHOP

This year for the first time, the PTA decided to give a tuition scholarship to one OCHS student. This play was staged to help pay for this scholarship. Mr. Minty and the drama department put on the play; the PTA publicized the play, staffed the doors, and sold tickets.

THE PLOT

Bull in a China Shop concerns the desire of six old maids to meet a handsome bachelor. If he had been a plumber, they would have broken a pipe; if he had been a glazer, they could have broken a window. The man in question, however, was a detective in the homicide division. Murder was his business. And thus the old maids make his business theirs.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

THE CAST: Ruth Reinkemeyer (Elsie), Jack Lathrop (Valere), John Francis (Magistrate), Lynn Howell (Master Simon, Monsieur Anselme), Gary Minor (Master Jacques), Gerry Auel (Frosine), Gary Teadtke (Harpagon), Linda Cooper (Brindavoine), Gary Hinkle (La Fleche), Susan Millard (Mistress Claude), Paula Biggs (La Merluche), Martin Wood (Cleante), Jeanette Halweg (Mariane).

"The Miser" was presented by the Senior Class under the direction of Mr. Paul Minty on December 1 and 2.

"The Miser" is a humorous satire on the weaknesses of French society by Moliere. Because Moliere didn't allow his criticism to interfere with the humor of the play, we find jocular characters meeting impossible situations to produce a farcical and fanciful play.

La Merluche: "And I, sir, have a tear in the back of my skirt. People might notice."

Harpagon: "You numbskull! Rascal! Scoundrel! Impertinent puppy!"

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Nancie Nichols, (Alice Grey); Dave Munz, (Steven Rollo); Linda Uney, (Ginevra); Shari Crawford, (Amy Grey).

The Junior Class under the direction of Mr. Paul Minty presented "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire" on March 9 and 10.

Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire is a delightful comedy by James Barrie. The plot revolves around Alice and her daughter Amy. Amy is a highly imaginative girl, and she misunderstands Alice's remarks to a family friend, and believes her mother is to have a rendezvous with him. However, with James Barrie's touch of wit and charm the play concludes on a hopeful note.

Dave Munz, (Steven Rollo); Dusty Davidson, (Richardson).

Meredith May, (Fanny); Linda Uney, (Ginevra); Sandy Whiting, (Cosmo Grey); Shari Crawford, (Amy Grey).

Janice Hoover, (Nurse); Shari Crawford, (Amy Grey); Nancie Nichols, (Alice Grey); Corky Edens, (Colonel Grey).

O.C. in action.

Elliott gives the word at locker room conference.

Coach Chuck Elliott's varsity gridiron squad played with a remarkable fighting spirit that helped them to tie a game with the league champions, Tillamook. They kept this spirit throughout the year although 'luck' wasn't always with them.

Mickey Haak and Bernie Carlson were co-captains, and Phil Setera received the Bernie Herrmann 1961 Most Inspirational Player Award.

COACH DALE HERRON

The 1961-1962 basketball season was very exciting. Out of eighteen games, eight of them had only a three point or less margin at the end of the game. Oregon City won four of these. Highlighting the season were the two colorful victories we scored over West Linn. Both of these victories were decisive and rewarding to the players and the student body.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Elks Temple was the site of the annual Junior-Senior Prom on April 6. "Lost Paradise" was the theme chosen for this semi-formal dance and the motif for the decorations was the lost city of Atlantis. The Junior Class chose Jon Alford, John Francis, and Mike Tutty as princes, and Paddy Kyle, Sandy Toman, and Patty Fidler as princesses. At the Prom Mike Tutty and Patty Fidler were crowned King and Queen by Junior Class President Ted Clinton. "The Starlighters" under the direction of Mr. Ervin Lesser provided the music.
